

DON'T ENVY THEM

Don't be envious of the people who are passing the summer in Europe. They are only missing the benefits and delights of this wonderful New England summer weather. Why go abroad when there is so much to be enjoyed right here at home? So much beauty and wholesome sport, comfort in the clear summer days, filled with the welcome sunshine and the cool and invigorating summer nights, bright with glorious moonlight and refreshing with the tone of the nearby sea.

HARD FIGHT FOR LIVES OF LEOPOLD AND LOEB IS NOW EXPECTED

Noted Alienists Join Defense Staff at Chicago--Case of the Defendants Will Be Stated Next Week

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, July 26—Dr. O. M. Healey of Boston and Dr. Benjamin Glueck of New York, alienists, were ordered to the staff of the defense today in the hearing of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, confessed kidnapers and murderers of 14-year-old Robert Franks. This presages, it is said, a hard court fight for the lives of the defendants when they have their hearings next week. Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for the defendants, announced that Dr. Healey is director of Baker Foundation of Boston and is a specialist in juvenile delinquency. He said Dr. Glueck was formerly examining alienist at Sing Sing, New York, and more recently attached to the municipal court in New York. He, too, is active in juvenile cases.

Chicago, July 26—Counsel for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb struck back today at the evidence for the state for the first time since the opening of the hearing Wednesday which is to fix the penalty of the youthful slayers of Robert Franks. A state witness was today cross-examined at length by the defense. Detective Sergeant James Cortland, who yesterday told of conversations with Leopold in which the college student defendant revealed his reactions to the crime he had confessed, was stubbornly cross-examined by Attorney Clarence Darrow as to the style of his notes and his experience as a police examiner. The action of the defendants' counsel was in the nature of a challenge of Cortland, in which virtually every statement was examined to the most minute detail. It was Cortland who, yesterday, as the state's 61th witness before Chief Justice Caverly of the criminal court, quoted Leopold as having declared murder to be no crime in his code. The witness was asked to read textually his shorthand notes on Leopold's statement that if he decided he would prefer life imprisonment to the gallows he would "plead guilty before a friendly judge." It was brought out that Cortland made no mention of the "friendly judge" statement to his superior in official reports, although he said he had revealed it to Asst. States At-

DECIDE TO REBUILD EIRENION

At a community meeting at the Fellowship House in Green Acre last evening it was the unanimous vote of those assembled to build a large hall connecting with the Green Acre Inn, this to be used in the place of the Eirenion which was recently destroyed by fire. It was also decided to renovate the Green Acre Inn making it all modern.

A drive is being made to arouse interest in a proposed beautiful memorial to the late Sarah J. Farmer, the founder of Green Acre. This memorial to take the form of a new building to be built on the site of the Eirenion. This new building will be started early next year and the regular schedule of events for the summer will be held in the memorial building.

The Odd Ladies lodges of this city, Dover and Rochester held their annual picnic at Cuppey Park, Dover, on Friday.

ISSUE PROTEST TO PERSIAN OFFICIALS

State Department Makes Formal Demand That American Citizens Be Protected

Washington, July 26—The state department officially prepared today to formally ask the Persian government to take immediate measures to protect American citizens in that country from attacks and insults from natives understood to be hostile against foreigners as the result of the killing of Major Robert Imbrie, American vice consul at Teheran and developments following the death of that official. Decision of the department to take this action followed receipt of advice from Joseph S. Kornfeld, American minister, telling of insults to Mrs. Imbrie, widow of the former consul for which a young Persian is said to be responsible. According to the ministers dispatch, the Persian youth, grabbed the veil worn by Mrs. Imbrie, attempted to tear it from her and at the same time expectorate upon her person. The reported outrage was said to have occurred at Teheran last Tuesday. A native policeman was reported to have been standing some distance from the place where Mrs. Imbrie was attacked and who is believed to have witnessed the affair, made no attempt to help her or interfere with her assailant, the dispatch said.

Explosion Wrecks Mine at Gates, Pa.-- 65 Miners Reach Surface in Safety

(By Associated Press)
Gates, Pa., July 26—The bodies of ten miners who met death last night when an explosion wrecked a section of the Gates Mine of the H. C. Frick Coke Company were brought to the surface shortly after dawn today. Seventy-five miners were at work when the blast came and a check-up of the company list showed that 65 reached safety. Rescue parties worked diligently to an attempt to save the imprisoned men but it was impossible to do anything for the ten who lost their lives. The men killed were members of the night shift at the mine.

SEABROOK CASE IN POLICE COURT

There was a lengthy session of police court this morning before Judge Cuptill with standing room at a premium with a large percentage of the spectators from Seabrook as the principals in a larceny case, were from that town. The action was brought on a complaint of William Young of Seabrook against Ralph Gove and a young woman friend for alleged larceny of a pocketbook containing some $100 from the person of the plaintiff on the evening of July 18th.

They were members of families which had been the best of friends until the disappearance of the money and the issuing of the warrant. The case had created considerable interest in the town and had brought many of its prominent citizens to this city to see the final outcome.

The plaintiff alleged that he lost his pocketbook containing the money while calling on the defendant's father at the latter's house and said that at the time the defendants were present. The testimony involved different denominations of bills and their identification.

The evidence became somewhat conflicting as to just how and where the money was lost and the court dismissed the warrant. The court stated that it was evident by the testimony that the respondent had the money at one time and had either lost it or was stolen, but the evidence did not prove what became of it.

SURRENDERS TO AUTHORITIES

(By Associated Press)
New York, July 26—Three months after he disappeared with cash and checks totalling $9,640 taken while he was serving as a messenger for a brokerage house, William E. Schott, 25, surrendered to the police today. Schott said a smarting conscience and a constant fear of being caught had driven him to surrender. The police said he was exhausted and almost starved.

COMPETITION IS THE CAUSE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 26—Competition from other countries rather than a reduction in consumption is given by the department of agriculture as the explanation of the decline during the last few years in exports of American farm products to the United Kingdom. A department analysis of the situation says that the United States now maintains supremacy only in tobacco, lard and hams.

HEAVY LOSS IN WAREHOUSE FIRE

Yokohama, Wash., July 26—Fire, which for a time threatened much of the business district of this city, was controlled this morning after a strenuous fight. The flames destroyed a block and a half of fruit warehouses with a loss estimated at $250,000. The police said they had evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON MIDDLE ROAD

A sedan owned by Richard I. Walden of Lafayette road and driven by his son-in-law, Claude C. Wilson, and a roadster owned and driven by Herbert Davis, were in collision this morning at the junction of Middle road and Peeverly Hill road. Both machines were considerably damaged. Neither of the drivers of the cars were injured.

The above snapshot is that of Jimmy Healey, a typical Herald newsboy full of pep, willing and anxious to please at all times. Jimmy has a route of his own which he is fond of. He never overlooks his customers and is always punctual. He is getting a good training early in life of simple business methods, just what every American boy should do. He is somewhat of a ball player and holds down a fielders position on the Young Creeks ball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Healey of 33 Woodbury avenue and attends the 5th grade at St. Patrick's school.

This snapshot closes the series of newsboy photographs. They have created a lively interest from the start and the boys had great fun posing for the camera man and watching for their picture to appear in The Herald. The Herald wishes to thank the newsboys for their help in making the series so complete a success. The Herald has published over fifty newsboy photos since May 23.

ARE REBUKED AS UNFAIR

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 26—President Coolidge today rebuked as "unfair" those who have "condemned out of hand simply through the device of misrepresentation" the plan of the government for observance of National Defense Day on Sept. 12.

HOW CAREFUL DRIVER MET SITUATION

According to witnesses of the accident on Lafayette road Thursday afternoon the machine driven by Philip Fox struck the Ludin machine which was going in the same direction and knocked it into a telegraph pole and at the same time struck the Rutledge machine which had stopped, and badly damaged its front running gear. Mrs. Rutledge saw the situation and brought her car to a stop. She was driving at moderate speed and when the Fox car tore through the line, she was on the extreme right of the road and not underway. Mrs. Rutledge is one of the most careful drivers in the city.

POLITICAL SITUATION PLEASING

Attorney Thomas P. Cheney of Laconia, who is directing the Knox for Governor campaign, was here today. He told a Herald man that he was much pleased with the situation in the state.

WITH THE BOYS AT CAMP ONWAY

The fifth season for the boys camp at Onway Lake that is promoted by the Rookingham County Y. M. C. A. committee has thus far proved the best ever. The boys and their parents are particularly well pleased with the improvements, program and the personnel.

Following is the list of the towns and the number of campers from each: Amesbury, Mass., four; Billerica, Mass., one; Danville, one; Derry, five; Exeter, eleven; Hampton, two; Malden, Mass., two; Melrose, Mass., three; Philadelphia, Pa., one; Portsmouth 31; Raymond, one; Frye, one; Seabrook, one. Total 70.

Officials are: Camp director, Percy E. Jewell, Exeter; physical director, Reginald D. Wellmuth, Portsmouth; cook, Mrs. John Dodge, Raymond; tent leaders, Frank and Robert Clark, Derry; Samuel and Watson Adams and George Bartlett, Exeter; Leland Brigham and Lewis Goodrich, Portsmouth; bugler, Edwin Mudge, Amesbury.

Speakers are: Fred S. Morrison, Portsmouth; Rev. L. O. Dabritz, Raymond; Dr. Otis P. Mudge, Amesbury; William D. McRae, Springfield, Mass.; Rev. Howard Joslyn, Roxbury, Mass.

Orchestra: Joseph Maddock, Portsmouth, violin leader; violins, Ralph Wiggin, Robert Cooper, Norman Mitchell, Julian Teague; cornets, Edwin Mudge, Lawrence Craig; saxophone John Ferris; flute, P. E. Jewell; drums, Bertram Mudge; piano, Blanchard Vining, Mrs. Dodge. The orchestra played at the Sunday morning service at the Raymond Methodist church. It also played for special song services at the camp. It will also participate in the annual entertainment to be given on Tuesday at 3 p. m.

The camp paper, published each week in camp, the Mirror, is edited by Leland Brigham and Lewis Goodrich. It will be compiled at the close of the season and sold to the campers.

Two all day treasure hunts have been held. This is the first year when such an affair has been held and the boys enjoyed them greatly. The winning tent was served a gallon of ice cream made by the tent that came in last. The overnight hikes to Pawtucket were participated in by nearly every camper and although two showers took place on the first hike the boys had a wonderful time.

Intertent competition in volleyball and quoits give each boy a chance to enter the games and fight for his tent. The elimination method was used until the two winning tents played off the championship game. Mr. Wellmuth and Mr. Jewell then played the champion tent and won two out of three games played. Much excitement prevailed. The camp baseball team played Raymond High school on the Fourth of July and although they were defeated the campers showed a lot of camp spirit and under the direction of Watson Adams as cheer leader kept up the enthusiasm a great deal. The tents with odd numbers played several games with members from the even tents. The croquet grounds were improved and several hours were spent in playing.

Each morning at the breakfast table a tent leader that acted as officer of the day had a camper read a portion of Scripture, another would offer prayer and the leader would give a talk on moral and religious topics. Tent devotions every night from 9 to 9:15. Campers attend church at Raymond Sunday mornings and hold a service of their own each Sunday evening in the cottage.

Swimming has been systematized to the best degree. Every camper has a mate and they must enter and leave the water together. A life saver is stationed on the diving tower and another on the raft. Two patrol in boats. Several boys learned to swim and others qualified for the life-saving tests given by the Red Cross association. The new diving tower has been a source of attraction and in constant use when the boys are in bathing. The swimmers are divided into classes according to their ability.

SUFFERED SINCE YOUNG GIRL

Words Failed to Express Benefit
Received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Greenville, Texas.—"Words cannot express how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Ever since I was a young girl, I would have cramps and headache, and I felt like I was freezing to death. I suffered in this way from the time I was a young girl, and all the doctors said was 'operation.' For months I had a tired, sleepy feeling all day, and when night would come I would be so nervous I couldn't stay in bed. Our druggist recommended the Vegetable Compound to my husband and he bought four bottles. I have taken every one and I think I have a right to praise your medicine."—Mrs. E. B. HOLLEMAN, 2214 E. Marshall Street, Greenville, Texas.

For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been used by women from girlhood through middle age. It is a dependable medicine for troubles common to women. Such symptoms as Mrs. Holleman had are relieved by correcting the cause of the trouble. For sale by druggists everywhere.

According to their ability and wear colored tassels about their necks. The morning dip was nearly 100 per cent in camp participation.

A special squad is on duty each day under the direction of the physical director to keep the camp in perfect sanitary condition. A new septic tank was built by the campers. The waste is taken care of each day. Personal inspection of the campers two or three times per week and ten inspection each day. All tin cans burned out each day and hauled off of the camp grounds. Special detail policed the grounds each morning.

Special nights are given over to the camp fire. Both periods of camp were opened with special banquet and camp-fire. Each camper told who he was and where he came from. The boys took hold of hands and repeated a pledge of loyalty to Camp Onway as the fire was started. Songs and cheers were given each camper. Surely the boys were made to feel at home on the opening night. Around the fire at the close of each camping period, the boys are given the camp emblems and diplomas that they have earned during their stay at camp.

PUT A NEW NOSE ON DOG

Bob, a particularly well-bred Airedale dog, owned by Tom Brown of Golden, E. C., has learned that beauty is more than skin deep. Bob was in an encounter with a bulldog recently and lost the end of his aristocratic nose. His owner feared that the unauthorized amputation would impair the value of his canine friend, so obtaining an ordinary Airedale without pedigree, he proceeded to the dog hospital. The mongrel was given sufficient anesthetic to put him into the canine heaven and Bob woke up with a new nose.

10 P. C. OF CONNECTICUT BRIDES GET DIVORCE

Washington, July 26.—Nearly one-tenth of the couples married in Connecticut get divorces, according to the figures made public by the department of commerce. For the calendar year 1923, 13,269 marriages were performed and 1,175 divorces granted. This is a gain over the number in 1922, when there were 12,108 marriages and 1090 divorces.

The increase in marriages reported for 1923 over 1922 is 1,161, or 9.6 per cent. The divorces reported for 1923 show an increase of 145, or 14.1 per cent over 1922.

TAKES A WOMAN TO DO THE TRICK

Berlin.—When a handsome young woman, on the verge of tears, stops passersby in fashionable streets of the city and asks them: "Have you seen my Bobby?" All dog lovers stop to commiserate with the fair one at the loss of her bulldog. A small crowd gathers and listens to her recital.

Later on several members of the crowd miss their pocketbooks. The disconsolate owner of the mythical bulldog is the "bait" for a gang of clever pickpockets.

GETS PRESENT FROM KLAN

Kinston, N. C.—Thomas C. Conway, chief deputy sheriff here, is proud of a new set of gold cuff links, a present from Judge Henry A. Grady.

The presentation caused no little interest, because Judge Grady a short time ago admitted that he was a grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, while Conway is a Catholic and member of the Knights of Columbus.

216,000 BALLOTS FOR PRIMARY ELECTION

The contract for the printing of both the Republican and Democratic ballots for the direct primary election in New Hampshire, September 2, has been awarded to the Granite State Press of Manchester.

The total number of ballots required in the election will be 216,000 of which 106,000 will be for the Democratic party, 100,000 for the Republican and 10,000 sample ballots for posting. Nearly two tons of paper are used, the size of each ballot being 3 1/4 by 12 1/4 inches with the exception of probable larger sizes for some wards in Manchester and Nashua, where there are several contestants for the county and legislative offices. The Democratic ballots will be printed on pink, the Republicans on blue, and the sample on white paper.

There are 294 towns and wards in the state and each requires different ballots and arrangement of candidates, for each party. It is estimated that the total number of names to be used on all of the ballots will be over 2000 although Secretary of State Sawyer believes that the filings will not be as large as in some former years. However, no comparison with former years can be made until after the filings are closed.

The ballots are sent to Concord as soon as printed where they are folded and banded, checked and sent to the various towns and wards. The work must be complete ready for the mails on August 16, allowing less than two weeks for the entire job.

RAILROAD NOTES

Order Big Engines
The Bangor and Aroostook Railroad has placed an order with the American Locomotive Co. for four consolidation type locomotives weighing 215,000 pounds. Orders for new equipment has also been received from the Central Vermont Railroad.

Important to Railroad
Railroad managers regard a recent verdict, won by a locomotive engineer's widow in the Ohio courts, against a truck owner as an important precedent covering the liability of those owning motor vehicles, for the injury or death of railroad employees or passengers on trains arising from crossing collisions.

Some Money Tied Up in Ties
It is estimated that the wooden ties, stretching from New York to Chicago, valued at $1.25 each, cost approximately $4,200,000.

Strikers Reinstated
Men who left their duties on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad, at the beginning of the carmen's strike July 1, 1922, have been reinstated with full seniority rights. They have 30 days in which to accept the offer.

The Kilowatt Hour

The watt, named for Sir James Watt, the inventor of the steam engine, is the unit of electric power, it being definitely related to all the other units of power, like the horse-power.

One watt used for one hour is called a watt-hour. The watt-hour however, is so small a unit that the prefix, "kilo" meaning a thousand, is used to indicate a thousand watt-hours, hence, we have the term "kilowatt hours." These are the units used in figuring your electric bills.

International Courtesy

Americans have been subjected to some unpleasant annoyances on the part of Japanese, since the exclusion act stirred up racial passions anew. But it should be observed that the Japanese government has tried hard to prevent such annoyances and has hastened to make amends whenever any case came to its attention.

A recent table told of an official apology voluntarily made to the United States consul at Yokohama by the chief of the customs force in that port, because of an "unusually rigorous examination" of American passengers arriving on the President Madison on June 24. The official declared that his subordinates acted wholly without authority, and that such action would not occur again. The Tokio government, while gravely protesting to our own government against racial discrimination, has taken special plans to see that Japanese courtesy is observed.

If such conduct is rigorously insisted on in America as well as Japan, there will be no serious trouble. In fact, there would seldom be any serious trouble between nations if the rules of courtesy were followed, by popular leaders as well as government officials. It is mostly bad manners that lead to fighting between individuals or nations. Civilized individuals learn how to discuss differences of opinion and, if necessary, how to agree to disagree, without using their fists. Civilized nations may learn to do likewise.

Airplane Sowing

The owner of a 640-acre lot in the vicinity of Miami, Fla., wanted to sow it in grass seed. It is quite a chore to put in a square mile of any kind of seed, as any farmer will tell you. It is all an ordinary city dweller wants to do to sow a few square yards of front lawn. But this land owner was a man of large ideas as well as large holdings.

He hired an airplane, loaded it with carpet grass seed and sowed that seed from the flying plane. The whole 640 acres was covered in 20 minutes. By the usual hand process it would have taken two men thirty days.

Here is a kind of broadcasting very much worth while. The word "broadcasting" is used advisedly, in its original sense, since finicky radio men have turned to the fancy term "radio-casting." It opens up new prospects of farm efficiency and ease.

By no means everything a farmer raises can be sown by airplane, but there are large possibilities along that line. Every big farm in the future may have a plane as part of its equipment, useful for sowing or spraying in the daytime, equally useful to take the place of the old-time buggy and more recent flivver of a summer's evening.

Single Citizenship

A law recently enacted in the Japanese diet abolishes the condition of dual nationality. Formerly a Japanese born in this country or any other country where birth gives nationality was regarded as a citizen of that country and of Japan also. Now a Japanese born in a foreign land will not be subject to Japanese citizenship unless his parents take formal action immediately upon his birth, and presumably such action would end his birth claim to citizenship in the foreign land.

This is sensible action. Dual citizenship has caused such strained feeling and many difficulties in the past. Uncle Sam doesn't care to have his citizens subject to a foreign power any more than he cares to snatch its citizens away from another government.

Japan's action in releasing foreign-born Japanese from allegiance to their racial home land shows a generous spirit and sensible attitude which should receive respectful acknowledgement on this side of the Pacific.

The Work of Rescue

The Vice President of the Eastern S. S. Co. said all that was necessary when he was asked about the crew of the S. S. Boston: "In a dense fog 883 passengers were removed in small boats to other ships without a mishap of any kind; no confusion or panic." That tells the story. The rescue work of the Fall River Line Ships Commonwealth and Priscilla was magnificent and has called forth praise for the officers and men of those ships from all over the country. Training and discipline of the Fall River Line through all the years of service and the remarkable record of the ships of that line has been an outstanding fact that has attracted thousands of travelers. Safety, comfort and convenience has built up the business of these lines.

The gigantic memorial to be erected in Fairview county, Kentucky, to the memory of Jefferson Davis, is a sequel to the gigantic Robert E. Lee memorial in Georgia. In both, Americans see the typification of true Americans, who became immortal in the field of battle and in legislative chambers and who fought a war which made the American nation truly one. Southerners and Northerners alike will stand with bared heads when these two princely types of manhood are unveiled to human eyes.

NEWSY NOTES
AROUND TOWN

The traffic lines on the highways in the business section loom up bright and fair again after being repainted. They are wide enough for everyone to see and there is absolutely no excuse for people crossing the streets in places not designated by the lines.

Judging from the number of automobile accidents it seems that it will soon be necessary not only to make a prospective owner know how to drive a car but also to take a mental test showing the aptitude he has for thinking quickly and logically. With the number of automobiles there is on the roads it is impossible to be rid of accidents but more stringent tests for drivers might reduce the number.

The Garden Party at the Moffatt-Ladd house yesterday afternoon was one of the biggest social events of the season. The Colonial Dames annual event in the beautiful and spacious garden of this fine old colonial house attracts one of the largest gatherings of notables that Portsmouth witnesses each year.

It is a rare treat to anyone to be able to spend some time in Portsmouth's old colonial dwelling. The large, well furnished rooms seem to breathe an air of mysticism and beauty that can be had nowhere else. The bigness and orderly arrangement of the rooms takes one's memory flitting back over the space of years to the time when the original owners of these houses were about their business of laying a foundation on which their new nation might thrive; and betokens a bigness of heart and intellect that was characteristic of these people.

The boys and girls growing up now will remember the horse as only a beast of burden being hitched to a truck and having as his primary object in life to cart produce from one place to another. The bright wagons and merry parties will not come from their sub-conscious mind to their conscious mind because such pictures never registered there.

Several babies have been born in automobiles lately proving how thoroughly motorized the world has become. These youngsters should be quite familiar with autos when they grow up and perhaps will bear the name of a well known make of machine.

Another week of July has slipped by and in the rush and bustle of mid-summer activity few of us have heeded its passing. Mr. Weatherman is still on the job turning out hot waves for which the beaches and ice-cream are thankful. And on second thought we must not forget the fair-mermaids. They have had a most glorious season and the best is yet to come.

Trucks running from Boston to Portland or even to Kittery have to obtain Maine licenses. It seems rather peculiar to see these big trucks tied up in Portsmouth coming many miles over New Hampshire roads and wearing the plates of Massachusetts and Maine but not of New Hampshire. The old Granite State is magnanimous to say the least. There is not a great deal of courtesy shown N. H. machines in either Mass. or Maine, however there seems to be a regular feud existing between the autoists and truckmen of the Pine Tree and Bay States and so they keep at each other all the time. A Maine car in Massachusetts without a Mass. plate is rare and vice versa.

Motorists are still getting a thrill out of seeing the Memorial Bridge opening up to let a ship go through. They have seen all sorts of draw-bridges but this one takes the prize. The mechanism of the bridge comes in for a great deal of favorable comment.

Dancing is undoubtedly the most popular form of amusement known to the modern world. Auto riding is popular but nearly every ride is to or from some sort of a dance. Dance pavilions run to full houses every night in the week. The Flapper has a few more chances to dance than her mother did. Many a mother can tell of the dances of the days when the "Virginia Reel" and the "Portland Fancy" were in vogue. These were few and far between. One every six months and then six months to prepare for the next one. Laugh that off fair Flapper.

Arguments are easy things to get going. The latest is an argument between a Flapper and an almost-Flapper to decide whether or not Helen of Troy had bobbed hair. Then there is one which would strive to decide whether or not Venus de Milo had her's bobbed and a switch put on cleverly when she was posing for the sculptor. Either side has a chance to win, but who can decide? The Egyptian.

tians used the bob style, why not the Greeks?

The time is not far off when Portsmouth may be minus the electric cars. There are few patronizing the electric but everyone hates to see them go. The city had some foresight when money was appropriated for a new tractor with which to clean the streets of snow in the winter months. With the electric cars out of commission and the clean place that was made in the center of the road by the electric snow plow a minus quantity, the tractor will be a necessity.

It is possible in this age of divorces that the Roman Rye system of marriage will be adopted universally. In order to become a bride of her chosen one the young lady simply has to jump over a stick. Then in order to get a divorce jumping back over the stick could be made the legal proceeding.

The showers Friday were short-lived but they brought with them a most refreshing cool wind which was a welcome visitor. We have had very few cool breezes since July began.

Gasoline pumps are getting to be as numerous as beer pumps were in the pre-Volstead days. If people don't spend their money one way they will another.

Having the cats on the back yard fence wake you in the wee hours of the morning is old fashioned now. The neighbor's auto being put to bed and giving its last puff before stopping is the modern way of being awakened in the night.

NEWS OF THE NAVY AND NAVY YARDS

Here For a Long Stay
Nothing is ever heard from the department regarding the Des Moines and the Chattanooga and it looks as if the ships would remain at the local station indefinitely.

First Boat Delivered
The first picket boat constructed in the yard for the Treasury Department was delivered today to Capt. John S. Cole, superintendent of the First District Coast Guard.

Sale On Oct. 21
The next public auction sale of surplus and condemned material in the local yard has been set for Oct. 21.

Will Test Colors
Numerous miscellaneous flags will shortly be displayed on the Eagle Boats tied up in the back channel. The flags will fly in all kinds of weather, the object being to test out the colors.

Sub to Sail Monday
The submarine S-29 will sail on Monday for the base at New London.

About $10,000
The labor pay roll of the local yard at present is approximately $10,000 a day.

Back From Trip
Col. Wise of the Marine Guard has returned from a business trip of ten days in Maine.

On Weeks Leave
Miss Lillian Colleton of the yard disbursing office is enjoying a weeks leave of absence.

Has Dummy Propeller
A dummy six winged propeller attached to the rudder post of the steam ship Norfolk now at the yard is attracting much attention from officers and yard employees. It is understood that the device helps to a great extent in the navigating of the ship and is one of the first of its kind being tried out on coastwise steamers.

EDITORIAL
COMMENT

The Better Course

Only those blinded by morbid prejudice will not see that in agreeing to the plea of guilty for their sons, the parents of the two Chicago youths charged with murdering another boy, have taken a step which is prudent and at the same time public-spirited. Beyond a doubt it would have been possible to string this trial out, as the Thaw trial was strung out, until it became a stench in the nostrils of the nation. The use of unlimited money can accomplish many things, including, sometimes, the defeat of justice. But in this case its chief accomplishment might well have been the arousing of passions and the whipping up of prejudices which are better left quiescent.

It was undoubtedly a wrench for the two fathers thus to give up the opportunity to make a finish fight for their sons. But we believe that they have chosen the better course, and we believe also that the nation at large will appreciate their courage and their wisdom.—Baltimore Sun.

And the Cider Press
Evidently thinking that the Democratic machine is going to need a lot of tinkering, one of the Carroll county leaders advertised in the Granite State News as follows: "Frank Hobbs wants those who have borrowed from him tools of all sorts and descriptions to return same as he now is needing them."—Concord Monitor.

NAVY YARD WAS BUSY IN 1862

Portsmouth Navy Yard is certainly coming into its own as the place for building Uncle Sam's greatest implements of modern warfare. The Navy department's recent decision to build the great V boat, which will not only be a deep sea underwater boat but also a mine layer, at Portsmouth is a great victory for our navy yard. This, however, is not a new thing to Portsmouth. Glancing through the files at the Herald office the writer's attention was attracted by the following article which appeared in the issue of the "Daily Morning Chronicle" of Wednesday, June 25, 1862: "The Colorado Ordered to Portsmouth. A telegraphic dispatch was received Monday morning from Secretary Welles, ordering the frigate Colorado to Portsmouth, N. H., where she will go out of commission, and her officers and crew be paid off. This will be quite a surprise for the people of the New Hampshire seaport, as no ship of the size of the Colorado has even entered that harbor.—Boston Journal." Underneath this announcement made by the Boston paper and published in the Chronicle was the following comment from the Chronicle: "You don't say! Really, we think it would take considerable of a 'ship' to 'surprise' our people." If memory serves us, the frigate Washburn, which we believe took President Pierce from this port round to Annapolis, was fully the size of the Colorado and we never heard of our good people being surprised out of their propriety. And we presume other frigates of the same class have entered here, as they should come again—or which last fact, we are glad to see (by this vessel's arrival) that our National authorities are at last becoming aware. And further not only was the fastest ship in the U. S. Navy built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, but they now have on the stocks there, the splendid frigate Franklin, the largest U. S. ship, we think. Don't gentlemen editors in 'the Hub' and hubbub cities,—pray don't put yourselves out to pity and condole with 'old Portsmouth.' She is able to stand her hand and asks no favors—only justice and fair play. But the secretary of the navy is welcome to send round here all the big vessels whenever there is any doubt about Boston harbor having water enough to accommodate them. Portsmouth harbor can take them, even with inverted masts."

SPIKE JORDAN
BACK IN GAME

The Concord Monitor in a report of the Sunset game between the K. of C. and Elks, credits Spike Jordan, the Elks pitcher with a comeback. The baseball writer says: "The work of Jordan was a surprise." Jordan was in his younger days, while a member of the Portsmouth High and Sunset League teams, an exceptional box artist, but since that time his arm has given way on him and he has done little or no pitching. Last night with a curve ball and a good head he held the heavy slugging K. of C. team to five hits.

Creation

This model is wearing one of the latest creations of Jean Patou that gives a very good idea of what skirt lengths and lines for fall will be. The waist is lengthened and the skirt shortened until the belt practically cuts it half and half. There is nothing to relieve the severity of cut but the wide leather belt of white leather with markings in Chinese red. The dress and hat are of the same material, black tulle.

RUNAWAY BALLOON LANDS IN MAINE

(By Associated Press)
Boston, July 26.—The naval observatory balloon which escaped from the Lakehurst, N. J., air station in a storm early yesterday ended its fugitive career on a tree at the eastern end of Pond Island, Me. The derelict had flown about 450 miles. It carried no passengers. Radio reports received indicated that it was a wreck.
The balloon continuing on the eastern course that had carried it across Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts was sighted passing over Isle Au Haut in the early afternoon, losing height. The 1500 feet of cable dangling from the empty basket brought it down further as it met the sea, and when it was seen by Gardner Lawson, a fisherman off Boie Subert Island, it was close to the water. The blimp fetched up in a tree, tearing itself to pieces according to reports here.
Navy yard officials last night said that word received indicated that although the balloon was badly damaged the instruments and basket were intact. Gardner the fisherman, who discovered the airship caught in the trees on Pond Island was watching her until the arrival of the tug Wandank which was under orders to return the blimp to the navy yard here, the navy officials said.

AUTO ACCIDENTS IN STATE KILL 22

Concord July 26.—Twenty-two deaths from injuries received in automobile accidents have occurred this year in New Hampshire according to records compiled by John F. Griffin, commissioner of motor vehicles. Mr. Griffin said that it is possible that there have been other fatalities in cases that have not come to his attention, but there can hardly have been more than two or three at the most.
Mr. Griffin's list takes in the following cases:
April 5, Mansarkhanader, Milford; April 17, Mary Kennedy, Manchester; May 17, Mrs. Simon Thompson, Wolfboro; May 18, John E. Ames, Exeter; May 19, Percy Alexander, Derry; May 21, George Dionise, Manchester; May 23, Anna Spola, Exeter; May 24, John Hays, Dover; May 31, Robert L. Cummings, Dover; June 10, Earl Mercer, Berlin; June 13, George Melancon, Webster; June 23, Theo Davis, Manchester; June 25, Mrs. A. G. Hood, Manchester, killed at Exeter; June 25, Ernest Johnson, George W. Erickson, killed at Concord; June 25, 13 months old child of Mrs. Albert Lachance, killed at Manchester; July 4, Mrs. George Monticelli, Manchester; July 5, Evangelina Galsomila, Manchester; July 9, William P. Wilson, Gilsum; July 13, Camille Gullerod, July 13, Aiken Woodman, Northfield; July 13, two-year-old child of Samuel Leavitt, killed at Lincoln.
Clinton E. Parker of Concord died on February 13 as the direct result of injuries received on December 9, 1923.

BAXTER'S CHAUFFEUR FINED FOR SPEEDING

Augusta, Me., July 26.—At a hearing held behind closed doors, Richard Webber, chauffeur for Gov. Baxter, pleaded guilty to a charge of exceeding the speed limit through Water street, Hallowell, and paid a fine of $10 and costs. Hallowell officers allege that Webber was driving at 40 miles an hour. Webber denied this, saying that he was taking an invalid home in the Governor's car and was not driving over 25 miles an hour, but since the rate within city limits is restricted to 15 miles, Webber admitted that he was driving faster than the law allows.
It was said at police headquarters that Gov. Baxter expressed considerable indignation over the arrest of his chauffeur. Gov. Baxter was not in the car.

PUBLIC LAWN PARTY AT MASONIC HOME

The Third Annual Lawn Party and outdoor entertainment will be held under the auspices of the Dramatic Club, on the spacious grounds at 351 Middle Street, from 6.00 to 10.30 p. m. Tuesday evening, Aug. 5th. The committees of former years have been enlarged, there will be more booths, more music, more fun. The public is invited, no admission fee is charged, the entertainment of two full hours will be for the benefit of the public and entirely free. Last year there was three thousand people in attendance and this year we expect five thousand. The entertainment will be different, and new. We want the public old and young to feel free to participate in our pleasures, to laugh, be merry and go away happy. Watch the papers for special announcements.
GENERAL COMMITTEE

The white lines denoting crossings for pedestrians about the Square have been newly painted and could be seen in the dark. No excuse for so many jay walkers. Why not use the crossings more? They are safer.
This is an ideal Saturday for trade. The weather is clean and cool and has brought many people into town.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEW CASTLE

The Daily Circle of King's Daughters is making elaborate plans for its annual midsummer festival to be held in Pythian hall, on the afternoons and evenings of Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 6 and 7. This annual affair is one of the social events of the summer at New Castle and not only the townspeople but the guests at this resort are pleasantly anticipating it. An entertainment program will be given each evening and home-made cake, flowers, candy and fancy work will be sold.

The Junior Circle of King's Daughters will hold its sale and entertainment on Monday afternoon and evening, Aug. 11 at Pythian hall.

The New Castle Library Association is arranging for its annual tea, to be held on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 13, from three to six o'clock at the Baptist church, which was not long ago given to the association. A sale will be held and the affair will be one of much social interest. The old Baptist church, which has not been in use for many years will either be remodeled for a library or, if sold, the proceeds will be used for a new building.

A number of summer visitors arrived today to pass the week end here.

The residents of New Castle are wondering what the visit of the state tax assessors will result in and what the figures on the next tax bill will read. It is whispered that the valuation will take a jump owing to the loss on one large estate. Valuation in the island town, has been low for some years.

CITY CLUB PLANS GARDEN PARTY

The Woman's City Club held a business meeting on Thursday afternoon at the Woman's Building on Middle street and made plans for the garden party to be held at Stoneleigh Manor, Rye Beach, on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 6. It is to be a most attractive affair and besides the sale of home made cake, candy, flowers, fancy work, etc., there is to be a delightful program, which will include a historical scene, interpretive dances and other features. Cards and Mah Jong tables will be arranged on the veranda. Mrs. Sturdivant of York is general chairman and it is expected many of the summer colony will be interested in the affair.

"THE IDEAL SUNDAY"

At the South Church (Unitarian) Sunday at 10.30 a. m. the minister, Rev. William Safford Jones, will preach on "The Ideal Sunday." The choir will sing the following music: "Hear, O Lord," Watson; "Thou Art, O God," Warren; "In My Father's House," Jewell, soprano solo.
This historic church, built a century ago, will be open for worship every Sunday throughout the summer. Visitors will receive a cordial welcome and after a quiet hour in this cool stone church will go away spiritually refreshed. The congregations thus far this summer show that people appreciate such an opportunity.

SHENANDOAH TO GO TO HONOLULU

New York, July 26.—A trip from the Pacific coast to Honolulu, also trips from Lakehurst, N. J., to Chicago and to New Orleans, are included in the tentative schedule of the United States navy dirigible, Shenandoah.

The trip to Honolulu is in a very nebulous stage at present, according to navy air officials at the Lakehurst station who were questioned in regard to the proposed trip to the middle of the Pacific. Comdr. Klein of the station said, "We figure that the Shenandoah can make the trip to Honolulu in three days and three nights with good weather conditions. If she should encounter strong head winds and other adverse weather conditions she might make it in five days and five nights."

"But nothing definite has been decided about the trip. The air distance from the Pacific coast to Honolulu is approximately 2000 miles and the Shenandoah could make it easily. It is only one of numerous trips that are talked of. Other trips include Chicago and New Orleans."

STEVENS MAY NOT RUN FOR SENATE

Concord, July 26.—Either Atty. Gen. Irving Hinckley or State Treasurer George A. Farrand seems likely to be the Democratic candidate for United States senator to oppose Senator Keyes. Raymond E. Stevens and William H. Barry who up to within a day or two have been accepted as the candidates for Senator and Congressman in the second district, have not been eliminated entirely, but each has indicated his willingness to step aside if a different candidate seems desirable to strengthen the ticket.

BURGLARS MISS MUCH MONEY

Oxford, Me., July 26.—When robbers broke into the Oxford postoffice yesterday they overlooked an official envelope containing a large sum of money, and got only a few dollars in cash belonging to the postmaster, Ida P. Stone. Some merchandise was taken from the store in which the post-office is located.

BURNS CAUSE DEATH OF BOY

Peter Place, July 26.—Lloyd, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Marshall, is dead of burns received while building a fire in the kitchen stove with kerosene. The can exploded, burning him from head to foot.

1,2,3,4,5 Years—
Still a Young Car

The Willys-Knight is a car you can keep and enjoy for years. A touring car with all the thrill of 42 horsepower—a car you can drive 50 miles and more an hour, hour after hour—without over-heating—without loss of power—without engine trouble—without carbon cleaning—without ever needing valve grinding.

The Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine is the most powerful engine of its size ever built—and the quietest—and the only type of engine in the world that actually improves with use. It is common for Willys-Knight owners to report 50,000 miles and more without spending a cent for repairs on the engine.

MAY ACCEPT ADDITIONAL CANDIDATES

The commanding general, First Corps Area (New England) has just received authority from the War Department to accept an additional 200 candidates for the 1924 Citizens' Military Training Camps. This is the third increase allotted to New England and is evidently due to the fine spirit in which the young men are enrolling.

General Brewster wishes to urge all young men who desire to attend the 1924 C. M. T. C. to mail their applications to the Officer in Charge, C. M. T. C. Affairs, Army Base, Boston, Mass., promptly. Also to commence their vaccination against smallpox and inoculation against typhoid-paratyphoid fevers immediately, in order that it may be well under way by August 1st, the day of the opening of camp.

AND THEY TELL US THEY LOSE MONEY

On a railroad dining car a man was charged these prices: Small glass of orange juice, 40 cents; 2 fried eggs, 35 cents; 1 mutton chop, 45 cents; sirloin steak, $1.65; glass of milk, 15 cents. At that it is declared these cars operate at a loss. That will excite the wonder of farmers, especially Florida orange grovers, whose product is often auctioned off for next to nothing. Something is wrong when the gap between farm prices and prices paid by consumers is so wide you can't see across it.

with your GAS man

IT IS quite the popular thing in Washington these days for the President to invite several of his friends to breakfast. Anyone familiar with the up-to-date gas equipment in the White House kitchen knows that the Presidential breakfasts inflict very little additional labor on the chef and his helpers.

Before gas cooking came into use, it is not recorded that a President invited his friends to breakfast. And the same thing was true of the average citizen. The easiest way to cause a walk-out in the kitchens in those coal-and-wood stove days was to burden the domestic help with a heavy breakfast order.

But gas service has changed all that. Among other things it has made quick meals possible with a minimum of labor. Otherwise there would be few if any so-called "breakfast conferences."

GARDEN FETE AT YORK HARBOR

Upwards of $750 Realized From Sale of Handiwork Made by Disabled Veterans

York Harbor, Me., July 26.—A garden fete for the benefit of disabled veterans was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Newton Perkins of New York at Sewall's Bridge.

Upwards of $750 was realized from the sale of handiwork made by the disabled veterans connected with the "Dugout" alone. Bridge and Mah Jong were in charge of Mrs. Valentine Hollingsworth of Boston and Miss Margaret Fletcher of New York.

Tea was served by a committee of young people consisting of Miss Dorothy Hungerford, Miss Cressey and Miss Bradley of Boston, Mrs. Richard Bate of Princeton, N. J. and Miss Sharpless of Pittsburgh.

Miss Elizabeth Perkins of New York was chairman, and Mrs. Charles Hallem Keep, treasurer.

The patronesses included Mrs. Matthew Luce, Mrs. Sidney Taber, Mrs. Valentine Hollingsworth and Mrs. Herman Bur of Boston; Mrs. Harris Childs of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Jefferson B. Fletcher of New York and Mrs. Edward Cook of New York.

HAMPTON
Hampton, July 26.—Mrs. Warren Batchelder is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Randall, in Monmouth, Me.

Mrs. Ernestine Wygant of Marlboro, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Cole.

At the recently held ninth annual session of the Northern New England School of Religious Education at the University of New Hampshire, 18 representatives were present from Hampton.

This was the second largest delegation from any town in the state and placed Hampton next to Manchester in the size of its representation. Of the total enrollment of 300 members, 209 were registered from Congregational churches, 21 from Baptist and 15 from Methodist churches, and the remainder from other denominations.

Rev. James Flagg will preach at the Community church at the beach Sunday and the Sunday following Prof. Dauber of Boston University will be the preacher.

Wilbur Norton is spending the month at the summer home of a professor at Exeter Academy, at New Harbor, Me.

Winfield Hobbs of Mansfield, Mass., was the recent guest of relatives in town.

The response that so many people are making to the Community Church fund is very gratifying. Some of these people are scattered throughout New Hampshire and, realizing the need for such an institution, are sending their contributions. Our beach has been slow in securing a place of worship.

Salisbury Beach, Little Bear's Head, Rye Beach, York Harbor and York Beach have had their churches for a long time. If a church is good for any community, it certainly is for Hampton Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garland of Brookfield, Mass., are visiting Mr. Garland's father, Dana Garland.

Mrs. Martha Blake is greatly enjoying her visit to her son, Percy, in Spokane, Wash., this summer.

Willard Nudd and family of Cleveland, O., are visiting his father, Eugene Nudd, at the beach.

PROPOSE LAYOFF OF FIREMEN

Manchester, July 26.—The financial situation in the fire department, of late the center of much controversy, was further complicated yesterday by the refusal of the board of mayor and aldermen to vote $10,000, which the commissioners said was necessary. Instead a communication addressed to the commissioners by the aldermen proposed laying off a number of men. A short time ago three fire stations were closed but were reopened later because of the indignant protest which resulted.

KITTERY NEWS

Kittery, July 26.—Edna French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon French, is ill the result of a bad fall on the railroad track near her home.

Ralph Dame has resumed his duties on the navy yard after a vacation of three weeks.

Mrs. Marion Philbrick of Oak Bank has returned from a visit with her son Horace Philbrick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacDonald of Love Lane are passing a few days in Bath on business.

Mrs. Anna Grant of Ogunquit, Charles Bowden of York Beach and Mrs. Walter Hammett of Boston were in town on Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Allie P. Webber.

Services at the Second Christian church on Sunday will be as follows: Morning worship at 10.30 with sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Everingham. Subject: "The Blessing and Benefit of Faith." Sunday school at 12 m. M. L. Duncan, superintendent.

Christian Endeavor and Epworth League Union meeting at 6. Leader, Carl Corning, topic: "Zeal: Getting It, Guiding It, Guarding It." Union meeting with Second M. E. church at 7; subject of sermon, "The Blindness of Unbelief." All welcome.

Men, don't fail to see the picture "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at Wentworth Hall Friday and Saturday.

Leslie B. Heaney of Central street has taken employment on the navy yard.

Quite a few from Kittery are planning to attend the camp meeting at Old Orchard tomorrow.

William Paul of New York is visiting relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grant and son Robert are visiting in Kingfield, Me.

Services at the Second M. E. church tomorrow are: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 with sermon by Rev. Alfred Gooding of Portsmouth. The evening services will be union meetings at the Second Christian church.

NEW CASTLE
New Castle, July 26.—All outward effects of extreme heat on the physical, mental and moral nature of man have been discernible this week. It was a hot time in the old town before night. Natural agencies that sometimes challenge the might of old Sol were lacking. He was not to be diverted from his task of making dwellers in a temperate climate understand what residents of the tropics meet with steadily. During a warm wave, contentment is the greatest refrigerator. Picket your goat in the shade.

Mrs. Alice Frye and daughter of Cambridge are occupying the Locke cottage.

Mrs. James Hulme is visiting her son in Bedford, Mass.

Mrs. Edyth Towner of Haverhill is occupying her cottage.

Miss Ann Wentworth Smart and Miss Eames of Boston are occupying their cottage.

Mr. Smith of Boston has purchased the Bell property on the Cape road.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Roberts have returned to their home in Farmington, N. H.

The Kings Daughters are working hard to make their coming mid-summer festival a success and if their past efforts are any criterion the present festival will surely rank second to none.

J. Franklin Poole of Boston is the guest of Frank Cousins and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Batson of Boston were recent visitors in the town.

Mrs. Grace Dorman of New York is a guest at the Card cottage.

Miss Gertrude Collins of Rutherford, N. J., is passing her vacation with her mother.

Preparations for the coming celebration are progressing rapidly. The affair is under the direction of those whose names radiate efficiency, the success of which is assured and it will mean a grand reunion of the sons and daughters of the dear old town.

George White of Andover is passing his annual vacation in town.

Congregational Church
Rev. N. Marlan Scott, minister.
Preaching services at 10.30 and 7.30. The sermon subjects will be "Children of Promise" and "The Outlook of Faith."

We want you to enjoy your vacation to the utmost. Do not think, however, that there is anything to be gained by a vacation from church attendance. We cordially invite you to our church—make it your church.

OBJECTORS TO HIGH TENSION LINE APPEAR

Dover, July 26.—The twice continued hearing before the Public Service Commission on the petition of the Twin State Gas and Electric Co. of this city for the right to erect poles for a high tension wire line between its power station on Cocheco street and Dover Point, where the line would join a similar line from the Portsmouth Power Co. station at Portsmouth, was opened at the Stratford county court house yesterday. Chairman William T. Garrison of Rochester and Commissioner John W. Storrs of Concord were present.

The land owners of the Dover Point section, said to be practically a unit in protest against the proposed layout, were present in large numbers. There are about 50 landowners interested in the matter.

The chief objection to the proposed route of the high tension line is the alleged danger of having these wires passing over tilled land and near dwellings. A route along the Portsmouth and Dover railroad has been suggested by the land owners as desirable, instead of having the line pass over their premises.

POLICE SAY CHILDREN ARE MORE CAREFUL THAN OLDER PEOPLE

The local traffic police say that it is quite noticeable the way the children are using care in crossing the streets. Many of them are more careful than adults in watching and waiting for the police signal. This is the result of the teaching of safety first in the various schools. While the children act good, the grown people in autos continue to be impatient and cannot see any reason why they should be held up for a minute while the police are trying to make it easy and safe for vehicles.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT BEACH COTTAGE

The "Osh-Kosh" cottage at Hampton Beach was the scene of a pleasant gathering when relatives and friends walked in upon Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of Fort Kent, Me., formerly of Exeter, N. H., it being Mrs. Nelson's birthday. A shore dinner was planned which seemed to strike the spot with everyone and it made it complete. A large birthday cake lighted with candles adorned the center of the table. Mrs. Nelson, although taken completely by surprise, calmed herself and in a few words expressed her appreciation and the thoughtfulness of those who so carefully planned the affair. She was the recipient of many gifts. The guests departed at a late hour all wishing their hostess many happy returns of the day. Guests were present from Haverhill, Springfield and Dorchester, Mass., Exeter, Brentwood and this city.

ROOF GARDEN TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Nellie Barron has some catchy songs for the Roof Garden Tuesday evening. Dan O'Leary will sing "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" and "I Hear You Calling Me." Tommy Orbre of the U. S. S. Savannah will entertain in his own inimitable way. Dancing starts at 8. Ladies 25c.

Mrs. Mary L. Webber, deaconess of the Nazarene church, in Cliftondale, Mass., will preach in the Advent church Sunday and Monday evenings at 7.30. All are cordially invited. Tel. 325-26

THE HERALD HEARS

That hen thieves are still cleaning up coops in Rockingham county. That the Burns Detectives believe that the stealing is being carried on by Massachusetts men. That they also believe that many of the birds go to Haverhill and Lawrence.

That 100 farmers are now armed and guarding their stock against midnight raids.

That the Democrats are organizing in York County.

That Judge W. M. Ingraham, candidate for Congress, is doing the work. That Spike Jordan is on the diamond again and pitching for the Concord Elks.

That the Boston & Maine set back several engineers to firemen at Boston on Friday.

That the corn borer inspectors on the Memorial bridge say they meet some queer people in their line of duty.

That many of them are indignant when held up and questioned by the inspectors who are only doing their duty.

That women generally take the matter in good nature and move on with a smile.

That the inspectors do their work with extreme politeness and it is hard to understand how they could offend any one.

That warfare in the making: "The young people will make their home with the groom's parents."

That you have a few days more to gather up some money for your real estate tax, if you want the discount.

That there certainly would be some thing of a stir if the Americanization movement extended to the names of college fraternities.

That bobbed hair epidemic is the cause for the Chicago Barbers Union threatening a strike if more pay is not given them.

That at present the scale is $26, a week with 60 percent of all checks over a total of $53.

That they now demand $38 salary and the same percentage of all over $50.

That the boy with the blueberry pail is out for some picking.

That some of the leaders of war 3 say there will be a balloon ascension on election day if the olive branch is not in evidence among the democrats.

That the Boston & Maine has dropped some switchmen at Dover.

That railroad men are doing some deep guessing these days and wondering where the economy wave will hit next.

That it seems queer that the regulation red lights are displayed on the new Memorial bridge at night and none on the old wooden structure.

That lights on the old span at night are just as necessary as before the new bridge was opened.

PLAYGROUND NOTES

In a well played game the West End team defeated the playground team by the score of 13 to 7 yesterday morning. "Connie" Quinn, pitching for the West Ends held the heavy hitting playground boys in check throughout the game. Charlie Powell, the playground pitcher, did very well, but received ragged support from his team mates.

Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7
West End 1 0 1 5 3 0 3—13
Playground 1 0 1 0 1 3 1—7
Batteries—West End—Quinn and Dimock. Playground—Powell and Cohen.

NOW SEE WHAT HAPPENED

Harry Pribble, Alva Hayes and W. W. Strickland, railroad men, once started on a quail hunt. It was the 13th of the month and they rode in car No. 13. "We are going to have bad luck, sure," said Pribble. They had been hunting little more than an hour, when Pribble shot Hayes in the foot.

TREE FALLS ACROSS HIGH TENSION LINES

A tree being cut down by some workmen on Bartlett street on Friday afternoon fell across the high tension wires of the Portsmouth Power Company and put the lines out of commission, causing a hold-up of traffic for a while on the Massachusetts Northeastern Railway, the Hampton and Exeter Railway. All power and lighting at Hampton Beach and other nearby places was also affected. The repair crew straightened out the trouble between midnight and daylight. The accident also caused slight trouble in the station on Daniels street.

BRIEF BITS

Dog days. Read The Herald. July nearly gone. Some delightful change. Sunday fair and warmer. Now for some buttonholing. The Herald ad man will fix you up. Many outings have been planned for Sunday.

White safety zone lines mean nothing to jay walkers.

No woman candidate has filed on either ticket in Portsmouth.

The man who takes the stand against high taxes should win.

The mail robbers will have to do some high flying to get at the airplane service.

There is contentment still in regions where people get excited about a game of horseshoes.

About time the state of Maine spent some of that $175,000 on the bridge approach in Kittery.

It is surprising how many auto drivers fail to see the signs on the street paving and ask the traffic officers which way to go.

The collectors for the Sunset League games say there is an increase in the receipts but the league can stand a little more. The coppers and "bum" nickels have not wholly disappeared.

Miss Myrtle Benson is delivering the goods in Fry's Restaurant just to pass the time away until her school reopens. (Arkansas paper). Anyway, Myrtle won't have to go hungry and should be in good trim to greet her scholars when the vacation is over.

Mrs. Jack Jackson, accompanied by Miss Belle, had a refrigerating good time in one of Stuttgart's cooling parlors one afternoon the past week, while Mother Jackson was polyfoxying all over the city hustling for a limburger sandwich. (England, Ark., Democrat). Old Man Jackson seems to have lost out on this Old Home day.

ENJOYED OUTING

Past Chiefs' Club Entertained by Dr. and Mrs. William A. Walker at Greenland

The Past Chiefs' Club, Pythian Sisters, were entertained on Wednesday afternoon and evening by Dr. and Mrs. William A. Walker at their summer home in Greenland and the occasion was one of much enjoyment. The time was passed in a social manner and the day was ideal for the outing. The husbands of the members were invited out to supper and a fine repast was enjoyed out of doors. Dr. and Mrs. Walker endeavored in every way to have their guests derive pleasure from the outing and all appreciated their hospitality.

RADIO WEAK AT SUNSET

Summer afternoons are the worst periods for radio; the bureau of standards of the Commerce department has found.

The announcement was made after extensive tests, which showed that during hot afternoons radio signals are weak and disturbances are strong. Observations made on the strength of radio signals from high power European stations showed that the signals are weakest at the hour of sunset at the European stations.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

A new automatic and self-regulating device has been invented by John A. Stransky, 1010 Main street, Pukwana, S. D., with which automobiles have made from 35 to 57 miles on a gallon of gasoline. It removes all carbon and prevents spark plug trouble and overheating. It can be installed by anyone in five minutes.
